RIOTING IN BALTIMORE. Baltimonic, Thesday, Oct. 2, 1866.

Considerable excitement occurred this morning at the and Conservative Headquarters. A national flag which hung suspended in front of the building was cut down, hung suspended in front of the building was cut down, and for a time there were great apprehensions of a most serious difficulty. The Pelice promptly came to the reacue, and compelled the rioters to return the flag, which was forthwith restored to its former position.

Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribune.

POTSDAM, N. Y., Tuesday, Oct. 9, 1866.

There was a Union mass meeting here this afternoon. The Town Hall was well filled. Excellent speeches were made by the Hon. A. X. Parker and Gen. Woodford. Gen. Woodford eloquently analyzed and discussed the issue involved in the canvass, and was warmly applicated throughout. Put Potsdam down for about $30 majority. FIFTEENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribune.

Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribune.

The Troy, N. Y., Oct. 9.—The Democratic Congressional Convention to-day adjourned for one week without making a nomination. The Democrats have been as yet unable to find any one willing to stand as a candidate egainst Mr. Griswold, whose majority will not be less than 3,000, even if an opponent is put up against him. It is now thought that the Democrats will not nominate a candidate, but leave Mr. Griswold to walk quietly over the track, while they concentrate all their efforts on the State tacket. Gid. Reynolds, a renegade Republican, promised to run, but after looking over the field and discovering that he could not take more than a dozen of the Republicans in the District with him, he peremptorily declined, contenting himself with the distinguished honor of presiding at a second-rate Democratic County Convention which was held here to-day. A county ticket was made out amid much wranging, and at one time a smart chance for a bir fight.

Gen. John E. Wool was samed for the nomination, but he featively declined to be a candidate for any elective position. He's a relative of Mr. Griswold.

THE REMOVALS IN THE XIITH DISTRICT-CONGRES SIONAL AND ASSEMBLY NOMINATIONS.

Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribane.

Hithework, N. Y. Tribane.

The work of "taking off heads" in this district continues, but, strange to say, the outs don't go out, nor the ins don't go in. The saiditional lat comes to me as follows: John Cadman, esq., Postmaster at Chatham, Four Corners, has been removed and his place filled by Richard H. Bump. Joshus H. Bulkley, Postmaster at Hillsdale, has been removed and William Foster appointed in his stead. Joseph H. Palen, Postmaster in this city has been removed and H. W. Dixon appointed in his stead. James Lathrop of Kinderhook has been removed, and Dr. Lucas Prayn appointed in his stead. Philip Rockefeller, Postmaster at Germantown, has been removed, and William H. De Witt appointed in his stead. Stuyvesant and Stuyvesant Falls have also been touched by the shriveled hand, and the Union postmasters there have "gone under."

From Dutchess County, Nehemiah Place, Postmaster at Fishkill Landing, has been removed, and Tillot Johnson appointed in his stead.

The above removats are made public only through Associated Press dispatches from Washington. I have been told that the majority of them have not been officially notified. Dixon, the new Postmaster in this city, don't know how he got the appointment, and ask each other why in thunder the Abolitioniats don't go out! There's a dead lock somewhere.

THE REPORT ABOUT A DINNER TO GRN. WOOL.

The Troy Whig says:

"The story to the effect that a grand dinner is to be given Gen. Wool in this city, at which Postmaster-General Randall is to be present and before which meeting a letter is to be read from the President, and which meeting is to have a tremendous influence on the Congressional election in this District, is all bosh and a dead humbing, having no foundation except in the brain of the writer.

A POSTMASTER'S OPINION OF THE RECORD OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

The Hon. A. X. Parker, Postmaster at Potsdam, St. Lawrence County, N. Y., an office worth $2,000 a year, sent a letter to Postmaster-General Randall, from which we extract this passage:

"The Democratic party was false to its history, false to its duties, false to the American people, and to the human race. It wantonly and brutally threw its vast weight upon a weak and defenseless people, struggling into manhood. It created, organized and sustained the Robellion. It became degraded, defeated and disgraced. Its followers are even now seeking to escape the infamy that envelops them as a cloud, by flourishing a new banner and answering to a strunge name. It bears the ourse of thousands upon thousands of the slain, and is hated and detested by loyal millions. The grave will not cover it, oblivion cannot hide it, mankind will not forget it. It is the political Gehenna of the world."

St. Louis, Tuesday, Oct. 9, 1896.
The reception of the Southern Loyalists by torchlight, and the procession, and grand demonstration on Lucas-square was a great success. Mayor Thomas received them, and the Hon. Henry T. CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR.

The Knoxville Commercial suggests that among those who might be named as fit candidates for Governor of that State are the Hon. Thos. A. R. Nelson, Col. John Netherland, the Hon. N. G. Taylor, Col. John Williams and Col. John Baxtor. It recommends the nomination of Col. Baxter.

TEXAS.

TEXAS.

The Democratic candidates for Congress from the IVth District of Texas are the Hon. George P. Finley of Lavaca, the Hon. Claib Herbert, and the Hon. J. W. Henderson. The Radical candidate is Judge I. A. Paschal of San Antonia. The last named, The Houston Telegraph says, "is a strong man, both intellectually and before the poople, and is fully up to Thad. Stevens or Charles summer in intense devotion to Radical doctrines." That paper thinks there is danger of his election through the divisions in the party opposed to him. N. B. Norton, who was indicted five times for treason to the Confederacy, is to be the Radical candidate in the Eastern District.

MASSACHUSETTS.

A REMARK OF CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS. The Boston Commonwealth says:

Speaking with Charles Francis Adams one day, about American affairs, Mr. R. H. Dana, jr., mentioned the word "nation" in connection with the country. "Nation" peutlantly exclaimed Mr. Adams, "it is no hallon-nothing but an association of States." Mr. Dana was not before aware of this mean tenance of the doctrine of State rights by Mr. Adams.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS.

The following are the Democratic State nominations in Massichusetts:

Massachusetts:

For Governor, Theodore H. Sweetzer of Lowell. For Lieutenant Governor, Gen. Hornee C. Lee of Springfield. For Secretary of State. Col. Luther Sevenson, Ir., of Hingan. For Attorney General, Wm. C. Endicott of Salem. For State Treasurer, Harvey Arnold of Adams. For State Auditor, Gen. Arthur F. Devereaux of Roxburg.

The Democratic candidate for Governor is the subject of this brief but sufficient biography in The Worce-ter Sale.

Spy:

Mr. Sweetser, whom the Johnson men in this State have nominated for Governor, was a Republicant in 1800 a delegate to the Chicago (Republican) Convention, and we believe one of the party who went to Springheid to announce the result to Mr. Lincoln. He grew fired of the association early in the war, and united his political fortunes—which were small—with the Democratic party in this State, which could sympathize with him in that respect.

the City and County offices to be disposed of at the ensuing election.

On the whole the delegates presented a more respectable appearance than is generally the case with assemblages of the great unwashed; but the delegates had evidently been awed into their ring themselves "very young," and accordingly saw, and board, and said nothing except when the one was given them. Mr. Fernando Wood thought it too early to nominate candidates, and the delegates to a man seemed to think the same. Mr. Wood also thought that after telling the delegates how and where their friends could get their naturalization certificates, they should adjourn and the delegates assented to the adjournment as proposed by him until Tuesday next.

GERMAN RADICAL FENTON AND WOODFORD CAMPAIGN CLUB.

The German Radical Republicans of the Sixteenth, Twentieth and Twenty-second Wards held their second mass meeting, last evening, at Hank's Hotel, No. 295 Ninth-ave, mear Thirty fourth-st, the President; F Schultz, in the chair, Mess, Julius Krageroski and A. Tanger, Secretaries. The large hall was densely crowded, and great enthusiasm prevailed in view of the glorious victories anticipated in the elections held yesterday in Ponnsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa. The first speaker was Higo Wesendonek, esq., who gave a glowing description of his recent experiences during a three months tour in the South. He stated that there were many Union men in the South, but they were afraid to act openly, because the political power was in the hands of the late Rebels, who, in company with the ignorant white trash, ruled with an iron rod, as the late riots in Memphis and New-Orienas and many other barbarities practiced in other localities, demonstrated.

The next speaker, Sigiamma Kaufmann, esq., aliaded to the history of the late Baltimore Convention, and to the intrigues of designing politicians, by which Andrew Johnson was nominated as Vice President. The Union porty for some time had trusted in him, but when he had velved the Freshman's Bureau and Civil Rights bills, it had become evident to the duilest intellect that Johnson had become a traitor to the principles advocated at Raltimore. Both speakers were hearthy applanded, and a vote of thanks possed. The next mass meeting will be held on Monday at the same place, when eloquent speakers will addiress the meeting. FOURTH HEAT.—A good star: Amgusture greater round the corner, Luther however collared him on enterin back stretch and had the front at the half post. Nunnie I close with them, from here the little mare challenged the I and both raced neck and neck along the back stretch into Run home when Abe calling upon his mount shot to the and won heat and race.

ANTI-JOHNSON MEETING AT ASTORIA.

The Hon. Wim. Burleigh of Brooklyn addressed the citizens of Astoria last evening, at Washington Hall, on the subject of the people versus the one man power. He said that although armed Rebellion had been put under the feet of the loyal sentiment of the nation, yet those who supposed that the spirit of the Rebellion was thereby extinguished were very much mistaken. The speakers first objection to the President spolicy was that be had no business with a policy—inis duty was simply that of an Executive, with no legislative powers, and when he assumed Legislative functions he departed from the limits of constitutional power, and became a usurper, had the President confined himself to his dates, there would have been no contest between him and Congress. Another argument against his policy was that it gave to those who have been in rebellion legislative and governments authority. Mr. Burleigh spoke also of the danger of the Rebel debt being forced upon us unless prevented by Constitutional Amondment and referred to the valor of the Blacks in the late war, saying it would be dishonorable to us as a nation not to make some provision for their protection. In comeluding he said that in the re-construction of this country we must not ignore the principles of justice—if we would bould enduringly we mat build on foundations of justice.
